against an estimated deficiency in the Budget estimate of Rs. 7,206. The actual Receipts were Rs. 1,821, more than expected when drawing up the Budget, and the Expenditure proved to be less to the extent of Rs. 3,827. The deficiency on the year is thus considerably less than was anticipated, and in drawing up the Budget for 1911 we have not had to recommend the heavy reduction on the relief granted that was suggested a few months ago.

The Budget is drawn up on the lines of the Receipts and Expenditure for the past year. Under the head of Poor Relief some reduction has been made in the figures of 1911 so as to provide against any deficiency on the current year.
